

Been There Done That

Tim Finn

First success hits you like a drug
You don't want to come down
Stuck to what you know
Then you fall into the losers bin
Start to smell a rat among the roses
I've been a loser, a winner
Another place and time
You know I've been there, done that

Everything is better, been there, done that
Doesn't really matter, you wanna write a poem
Everything is better, been there, done that

The words are sharp and deep
Words of truth, falling on their feet
Under a golden sky
The streets are paved with tears
Flying high on wings of wax and worth
Every journey's quicker on the way back
I've been a loser, a winner
Another place and time
You know I've been there, done that

Everything is better, been there, done that
Doesn't really matter, you're falling off a big track
Everything is better, been there, done that
(been there done that)

I've been a loser, a winner
Another place and time
You know I've been there, and I've done that Done that ..
Everything is better, been there, done that
Doesn't really matter, got to feel better than ..
Everything is better, been there, done that
Doesn't really matter, there are no aftermath
Been there, done that, been there, done that
