

Once-Touched by Flame

Tim Hardin

Daily does the light grows stronger
Do the young done, leaving one
Now that I live, need to live much longer
Gonna pain by growing dim
She said she love you
And they are face to face in love

Now my past and last week dreams are true
So real I feel like I'm indeed
Take my place
Once touched by a flame
A name into love

The family's got me satisfied
To live with only me inside
A woman that gave me back my pride
And now my heart and mind are worm
