

Buy You A Drink

Tim Hicks

Time flew by so fast
Girl, it's been a minute
We let two summers pass
But nothing changed a bit

Still something 'bout the way you're moving
Gets me every time
And I don't know what you've been doing
But boy, you're looking fine

I'd like to buy you a drink
Sit and talk about anything
Bartender, pour us something strong
We haven't done this in so long
So let the big old world stop turning
The bourbon start burning
'Cause nothing gonna stop us tonight
So baby, tell me what you think
I'd like you a drink

Heard you broke it off
With the girl from Carolina
Quit that office job
And left it all behind ya
All that's true but how 'bout you
You still with what's his name?
'Cause if you're not then let's get lost
And let the whiskey take us away

I'd like to buy you a drink
Sit and talk about anything
Bartender, pour us something strong (pour us something strong)
We haven't done this in so long (so long)
So let the big old world stop turning
The bourbon start burning
'Cause nothing gonna stop us tonight
So baby, tell me what you think
I'd like you a drink

When that big old world stops turning
The bourbon starts burning
Hell, we'll have the time of our lives
You wanna know why?
C'mon!

Yeah, I'd like to buy you a drink
Sit and talk about anything
Bartender, pour us something strong
'Cause we haven't done this in so long
So let the big old world stop turning
The bourbon start burning
'Cause nothing gonna stop us tonight
So baby, tell me what you think
Why don't you tell me what you think
I wanna tell you what I think
I'd like you a drink
Buy you a drink

I'd like to buy you a drink
