

Been Around Awhile

Tim McGraw

No smoke in this mirror
What you see's what you get
A lotta "should've known better"s
So many regrets
A lotta hard time
A lotta tears cried
Just to get to this smile

I've been around a while
Didn't just fall down in yesterday's rain
I've been around a while
Somehow found God on a hell-bound train
I've lost friends
Made some broke hearts
In the name of love
And it was worth every mile
Yeah, I've been around a while

Ran outta "give a damn"s
Somewhere along the ways
I found a better man
And that's who I am today
That used to be
I used to be
Went out of style
Yeah, I've been around a while

Didn't just fall down in yesterday's rain
I've been around a while
Somehow found God on a hell-bound train
I've lost friends
Made some broke hearts
In the name of love
And it was worth every mile
I've been around a while

I've been around a while
Didn't just fall down in yesterday's rain
I've been around a while
And I found God on a hell-bound train
I've been around a while
Somehow found God on a hell-bound train
I've lost friends
Made some broke hearts
In the name of love
And it was worth every single mile
Worth every single got-me-to-you mile
I've been around a while

Hmm
I've been around a while
