Gravity

Tim McGraw

Look what you have overcome to get here
Look at the distance you've run
The doubt that you push down

Fear you have drawn out when they said that it couldn't be done

In your head
In your heart and
In your hands

In your head
In your heart and
In your hands

In your head
In your heart and
In your hands

Gravity is a fragile thing
All of the work that you left in your roads
All of the dreams and that all
Now you can finally see them
They meet you at your destination
Now that you have made it so far

In your head
In your heart and
In your hands

In your head
In your heart and
In your hands

In your head
In your heart and
In your hands

Gravity is a fragile thing
It don't define you
Gravity will help you, love you

Tell them to never let go
There is a beautiful valley below
When you hold on so tightly to the dream
Gravity is just a fragile thing...
