

Her

Tim McGraw

I'd like to think I'm a got-my-life-together kind of guy
That table took a while to turn
How I got from where I was to where I am
That's a crazy winding road for sure

But I can straighten it out with just one word

Her
Her heart is true, her spirit wild
Her
Her faith is strong and man, her smile's
Got blue sky right behind it
If there's a bright side, then she'll find it
Sometimes I wish that I could be a little less like me
A little more like her

I admit I fly off the handle now and then
She can handle about anything
She says everything's gonna be just fine when I have my doubts
I wouldn't want to spend a day on this earth without her

Her
Her heart is true, her spirit wild
Her
Her faith is strong and man, her smile's
Got blue sky right behind it
If there's a bright side, then she'll find it
Sometimes I wish that I could be a little less like me
A little more like her
Just a little more like her

Her lips, her laugh, her hair pulled back
Her voice saying my name
That feels-like-home look in her eyes
I love everything about

Her
Her heart is true and her spirit wild
Her
Her faith is strong and man, her smile's
Got blue sky right behind it
If there's a bright side, then she'll find it
Sometimes I wish that I could be a little less like me
A little more like her
Just a little more like her

Yeah, yeah
Oh, a little more like her
Oh, a little more like her
Oh, a little more like her
