

Hey Whiskey

Tim McGraw

All I ever did was give you my attention
Every Friday night since I turned twenty-two
I trusted you with my naive intentions
Hey whiskey, what'd I ever do to you?
I gave you every penny in my pocket
You helped me lie and made me tell the truth
Stayed out with you all night when you came calling
Hey whiskey, what'd I ever do to you?

I let you stay, you made her leave
You made me say things I don't mean
To the only girl that ever made me choose
I gave you everything I had
Went to hell and can't get back
The only thing I couldn't stand to lose
Hey whiskey
Hey whiskey, what'd I ever do to you?

You talked me into letting her walk out
You promised me I'd find somebody new
But I gotta ask from where I sit right now
Hey whiskey, what'd I ever do to you?

I let you stay, you made her leave
You made me say things I don't mean
To the only girl that ever made me choose
I gave you everything I had
Went to hell and can't get back
The only thing I couldn't stand to lose
Hey whiskey
Hey whiskey, what'd I ever do to you?

I held you up
You let me drown
Nah you ain't worth the hurt
So why can't I put you down?

I let you stay, you made her leave
You made me say things I don't mean
To the only girl that ever made me choose
I gave you everything I had
Went to hell and can't get back
Both the hearts that you just broke in two
Hey whiskey
Hey whiskey, what'd I ever do to you?
Hey whiskey
Hey whiskey, what'd I ever do to you?
