

Hold You Tonight

Tim McGraw

Watching you stare down a sunset
Like you ain't found what you're looking for
Wishing that I could be it
But all I can be is yours

The girl on the downtown rooftop
Didn't care what people think
The girl before the boulevard of broken dreams
Where is she?

Go on, try and find
The match that lit the fire that made you wild
I'll be here, take your time
Cry every single tear you need to cry
I can't fix the world
But I
I can hold you tonight

I don't ever want you to wonder
Who you might have been on your own
I don't ever wanna steal your thunder
Or steal your heart
I wanna be the one to still your soul

Go on, try and find
The match that lit the fire that made you wild
I'll be here, take your time
Cry every single tear you need to cry
I can't fix the world
But I
I can hold you tonight, oh
Hold you tonight, oh

Girl, they know a town could crumble
Who I love more than anything
Girl that makes me better, than I could ever be
Where is she?

Go on, try and find
The match that lit the fire that made you wild
I'll be here, take your time
Cry every single tear you need to cry
I can't fix the world
But I
I can hold you tonight, oh
I can hold you tonight, oh
I can hold you tonight
Hold you tonight
Hey
Hey
Hey
Hey
