

Mostly Stoned

Tim Montana

Some people chasing that almighty dollar
Some people drug through life by their blue collar
Some people searching never knowing who to be
While they run around this crazy town
I'll tell ya that ain't me

I'm mostly stoned
Holed up in this ol' house alone
Kick back and let my troubles go
Say what does that get ya
Well how does this hit ya
Ain't nothing weighing on my mind tonight
I'm mostly stoned

She called to tell me how everything's been going
Condo downtown finally got her big promotion
I'm kind of busy girl gonna have to call you back
What was that, how am I
Hey, I thought you'd never ask

I'm mostly stoned
Holed up in this ol' house alone
Kick back and let my troubles go
Say what does that get ya
Well how does this hit ya
Ain't nothing weighing on my mind tonight
I'm mostly stoned

Head up in a smoke cloud watching vinyl spin around
High up on a mountain now nothing gonna take me down
Head up in a smoke cloud watching vinyl spin around
High up on a mountain now nothing gonna take me down

I'm mostly stoned
Holed up in this ol' house alone
Kick back and let my troubles go
Say what does that get ya
Well how does this hit ya
Ain't nothing weighing on my mind tonight

I'm mostly stoned
Holed up in this ol' house alone
Kick back and let my troubles go
Say what does that get ya
Well how does this hit ya
