

Roar

Tim Timmons

With You, my God, before me
I'm laying down my worry
Right now, I'm picking up praise
As long as I am breathing
While my heart is still beating
Right now, I'm picking up praise

So, let my praises roar
Roar like a freight train
Louder than all my fears
So, this is war
Shout to the darkness
You're not welcome here
Through it all
Hallelujah, hallelujah

With You, my God, beside me
I'll rest, I'll trust Your timing
Right now, I'm picking up praise
Although the night grows darker
I'm safe with You, my Father
Right now, I'm picking up praise

So, let my praises roar
Roar like a freight train
Louder than all my fears
So, this is war
Shout to the darkness
You're not welcome here
Through it all
Hallelujah, hallelujah

And I will sing
Sing hallelujah
Sing hallelujah
I'll sing
Sing hallelujah

And I'll shout
Shout hallelujah
Shout hallelujah
And I'll shout
Shout hallelujah

So, let my praises roar
Roar like a freight train
Louder than all my fears
So, this is war
Shout to the darkness
You're not welcome here

Let my praises roar
Roar like a freight train
Shout to the darkness

Through it all
Through it all
Hallelujah, hallelujah
