

Spring Up

Tim Timmons

Is there a river inside of me
Right now wanting to break free?
What if it's true? What if it's true?
Is there a power alive in me
That can make a dead man walk and the blind see?
What if it's true? What if it's true?

What if all the life was already there
Welling up and drowning out the fear?

Spring up oh well in my soul
And let the flood go
Open the gates, every heart
And let the river flow
'Til we can see
'Til we believe
That You are everything
All that we need

Spring up

If I believe it, am I living it out?
If I believe it, am I living it out?
If I believe it, am I living it out?
If I believe it, am I living it out?

What if this river in me
Is stronger when I'm weak?
What if it's true? What if it's true?
What if I give up control
Hands up, let go?
I have nothing to lose, nothing to prove

What if all the life was already there
Welling up and drowning out the fear?

Spring up oh well in my soul
And let the flood go
Open the gates, every heart
And let the river flow
'Til we can see
'Til we believe
That You are everything
All that we need

Spring up

If I believe it, am I living it out?
If I believe it, am I living it out?
If I believe it, am I living it out?
If I believe it, am I living it out?

Oh oh, I can feel it now
Oh oh, hope is rising
Oh oh, springing up a well
Oh oh, in my soul
Oh oh, joy unspeakable

Oh oh, love unshakeable
Oh oh, springing up a well
Oh oh, in my soul

If I believe it, am I living it out?
If I believe it, am I living it out?
If I believe it, am I living it out?
If I believe it, am I living it out?

Spring up oh well in my soul
And let the flood go
Open the gates, every heart
And let the river flow
'Til we can see
'Til we believe
That You are everything
All that we need

Spring up

Spring up oh well
Oh oh spring up oh well in my soul
Oh well oh...

If I believe it, am I living it out?
If I believe it, am I living it out?
If I believe it, am I living it out?
If I believe it, am I living it out?
