

Harry Up And Wait

Timati (Тимати)

It's like being in a rush, tryna catch a plane
Just to find it's been delayed
It's like jumping in a line to get a better place
Then they close right in your face
Guess I'll hurry up and wait

Feeling like I'm young but I'm older now
Still seems like times moving slower now
Feels like what's the day before yesterday
Met you in the 9th grade, now you're grown now
Same style, fitted jeans and a body shirt
But you got a couple body parts broken up now
Had a boy from back then but you still flirst
Been married one time, you're divocred now
Kinda waited on the sunlight
In bgetween got my heart broken a few times
Heard you moved back home for a new job
But you still tryna go to school full-time
Same sorry, same book with a new cover
Guess I'll hurry up and wait on her

It's like being in a rush, tryna catch a plane
Just to find it's been delayed
It's like jumping in a line to get a better place
Then they close right in your face
Guess I'll hurry up and wait

Feeling like I'm getting close but I'm further now
It's like I had a vision but it's blurry now
Weekends used to fill like the weekdays
Ain't enough days in a week new
Thought I had your new number but it's still the same
Heard you opened up a business in LA now
Been on tour for a year, ain't shit changed
On a plane and the days bout to touch down
Had somebody but we broke up
Seen you out at the club, got my hopes up
Sent a couple gold bottles to your table
Telephone rang then I woke up
Same bed, same sheets with a new cover
Guess I'll hurry up and wait on her

It's like being in a rush, tryna catch a plane
Just to find it's been delayed
It's like jumping in a line to get a better place
Then they close right in your face
Guess I'll hurry up and wait, yeah
Hurry up and wait
Guess I'll hurry up and wait, yeah
Hurry up and wait, yeah yeah

Did I even have a chance
Was I thinkin' out of my league
Don't wanna let all this time be in vain
Let it be what it is, there's no options
Just accept that in my heart the leave
Oh yeah
