

Skin

Timbaland

I spy on you weekly, I work on your trace
You're the one piece of hope I hold on human race
And I'm making a run for what I left undone
So I dive in the ballroom and I look to the right
You light up like Vegas on the blue neon light
Then I'm blind by the crowd with my heart beating loud

Yeah, yeah, yeah
Yeah, yeah

Let your skin sink and put it on me
Touching your body, deep as the sea
Let your skin sink and put it on me
Touching your body, deep as the sea

You've got my attention, got me hot to the core
Got my smell on your jacket, let it linger some more
Oh your body is a shore that I've dived in before
We skip interjections, go right to the point
I'll spare you some loving, you spare me a joint Sew your name on my skin if it comes from within
If it comes from within, ooh, hey, hey

Let it linger on me

Let your skin sink and put it on me
Touching your body, deep as the sea
Let your skin sink and put it on me
Touching your body, deep as the sea

Let your skin sink and put it on me
(Let your skin sink and put it on me)
Touching your body, deep as the sea (Touching your body)
Touching your body, deep as the sea
