

Junkies

Time Again

Now that we go and everything we know, it's the criminal streetwise and the people that lies
and everything I said, am I really dead, if ya do it like this let me lay you in my bed.

[Chorus:]

Where all the loadies go.
Where all the junkies go.
Do ya know, do ya know.

Where do the junkies go, what do they really know know, everybody said so, I don't think so.
Everything you do, is that shit so true,
come now man, I'm looking at you.
