

Are You Down

Timeflies

You know I'm not so confrontational
I get so lost in conversation when I'm with you
I don't know why I'm so insatiable
And you can't help but keep me waiting, now it's your move

Look to the sky, I'm feeling vibes
Are you down tonight, are you down tonight?
Let down your guard, show me your scars
Are you down tonight, are you down tonight?

Let's skip this part, where we talk about nothing like it's something
You can let down your guard, 'cause we only get real when we get real drunk
And I know it must be hard, thinking like you can't
Oh God, just trust me
If you're feeling what I'm feeling, can we stop looking for reasons?

Look to the sky, I'm feeling vibes
Are you down tonight, are you down tonight?
Let down your guard, show me your scars
Are you down tonight, are you down tonight?
Are you-

Let me rock your body, like a 95
She's waving to her friends, time to say goodbye
She hops up in my ride, slide it to the side
She said "Cal, only thing that's getting swallowed is your pride"
Damn, keep her up all night, cold brew
Blowing spirit bombs, on my, on my, on my Goku
Higher and higher and higher
Like there's no roof
Call me superman, 'cause I'm hopping out the phone booth

Look to the sky, I'm feeling vibes
Are you down tonight, are you down tonight?
Let down your guard, show me your scars
Are you down tonight, are you down tonight?
Are you-
