

I guess it hadn't hit me yet
Must have been the alcohol and cigarettes
You left me here in such a mess
Haven't even thrown away your pictures yet

Simple pleasure
Don't numb the pain forever
It's getting better
When I'm not thinking 'bout you

It's easy
If I don't listen to my heart
It's easy
If someone else is in my arms

I try to occupy every night
Drinking and wishing I could ease my mind
But to tell the truth, losing you wasn't easy

I've been adding up the days
That I've been waking up to empty space
And sleeping doesn't help at all
'Cause every time I close my eyes I see your face

Simple pleasures
Don't numb the pain forever
It's getting better
When I'm not thinking 'bout you

It's easy
If I don't listen to my heart
It's easy
If someone else is in my arms

It's easy
If I don't listen to my heart
It's easy
If someone else is in my arms

It's hard losing sleep
It's hard trying to speak, yeah
It's hard just to breathe, it's hardest for me
'Cause you're what I need, yeah

It's hard losing sleep
It's hard trying to speak
It's hard just to breathe, yeah
It's hardest tonight
'Cause you're on my mind
It's easier just to lie
