Timomatic

Falling
Deep into my mind
Early morning
Takes me every time

Why do I feel like
Something's over me
And then I realise
It's all I need

Maybe
I'm the only one
Who saves me
When I'm on the run from Breaking
Am I too far gone

And I know I should be over you
But I'm longing for the push and pull
I never looked you in the eye till now
Fall to my knees, I don't make a sound

I'm so cold
You take me there
To a place
I lose myself

I lose myself in you
Said I lose myself
Over and over...
