Devil's Door

Tina Dickow

The lies I told
Ooh, the rules I broke
The time I stole
Just to be alone with you

The tears I wept
Ooh, the secrets I kept
The lines I overstepped
To be alone with you
To be alone with you

I've never been so reckless before
I've never been so close to breaking the law
Knock-knock-knocking on the devil's door
To be alone with you

When we came back to the real world
There was nothing left to say
Just a world of debt to pay for the time
Alone with you

The bridges I've burned
Ooh, the loved ones I've hurt
Rolling in the dirt just to be
Alone with you
To be alone with you

I've never been so reckless before
I've never been so close to breaking the law
Knock-knock-knocking on the devil's door
Oh, I've never been so reckless before
I've never been so close to breaking the law
Knock knock knocking on the devil's door
To be alone with you

I sold my soul for you (I wanna be alone with you)
Knock-knock-knock (I wanna be alone with you)
I want you so bad (I wanna be alone with you)
To be alone with you (I wanna be alone with you)
I can't stop-stop-stop (I wanna be alone with you)
You drove me mad (I wanna be alone with you)

I've never been so reckless before
I've never been so close to breaking the law
Knock-knock-knocking on the devil's door
Oh, I've never been so reckless before
I've never been so close to breaking the law
Knock-knock-knocking on the devil's door
Knock-knock-knocking on the devil's door
Knock-knock-knocking on the devil's door
To be alone with you
