

The Woman I'm Supposed to Be

Tina Turner

Won't you give me just one day
That word "yeah"
I could use that extra house
I mean my heart in

I can tell you how it feels to be only one
The woman I'm supposed to be

Won't you give me just one hour
To this, play my candies
I'm so sure I got the pound
To kill you blinded

I can show you how it feels to be only one
The woman I'm supposed to be

And when your paws
Only play a hell cause of a little understanding
I'm praying for a happy ending

Won't you give me just one day
That world, yeah
I could use that extra house
Cause I mean my heart in

I can tell you how it feels to be only one
The woman I'm supposed to be

I can show you how it feels to be only one
Only one
Only one
The woman I'm supposed to be

Only one
Only one
Only one
The woman I'm supposed to be
