

Gravity

Tinashe

First things first, I hope you rolling up
When we get faded I, I can open up
I've been drowning in my dreams again
Fooled me once, can't fool me twice
But it'd be nice
I can't decide if I should trust my heart or trust my eyes
It's a fight, I know my worth and we're on a ride
But I'd be satisfied with who you are inside (Who you are inside)
So stay here tonight

Keep falling into me (Ah)
And I'll keep falling into you (Ah)
When I feel spaces we could fill (Ah)
Gravity pulls me down back to you

Hang it up, clothes line
I don't need a cosign
I believe in soul ties
We been here the whole time
And fighting with my heart and my head over you is a battle, but I'm so tired
What am I to do when I knew I could take 101 to The Westside? (Ooh, o h)
The room is getting bright
The things I've been ignoring are all coming to the light
You could slide, slide
Stick side by
That's my guy
See it, wide eyes, wide eyes

Keep falling into me (Ah)
And I'll keep falling into you (Ah)
When I feel spaces we could fill (Ah)
Gravity pulls me down back to you

Mm

No

Ooh

Ooh

Pulling me, pulling me (No)
Pulling me, pulling me (No)
Back to you, back to you
Pulling me, pulling me (No)
Pulling me, pulling me (No)
I think I'm falling
Pulling me, pulling me (No, no)
Pulling me, pulling me (No, no)
I think I'm falling
Pulling me, pulling me (No)
Pulling me, pulling me (No)
I think I'm falling
