

Second Chance Man

Tindersticks

Found love
Before I could begin to fight
I found great before I could be mistified by you
You know I never said I'm sorry
Around a place
Looking to be enlightened by you

[R]
Say I'm the second chance man
The last chance man
You're the second chance man
The last chance man

Who was it gone
Knowing if certain coming
I was scared to put my trust in you
Feeling sorry you

[R]
But I'm the second chance man
The last chance man
You're the second chance man
The last chance man

So was it, night
You know I never heard you cry
And you sick of life
Mightbe I was lying to myself

[R]
But I'm the second chance man
The last chance man
You're the second chance man
The last chance man

And I don't know why now
You've heard it before and i was
Seeing you move out
And watch you go, now I'm missing you
Over my head I was feeling you walk slow
We meet over again

Give me a second chance man
Because I'm a last chance man
Give me a second chance man
Because I'm a last chance man
Give me a second chance man
Because I'm a last chance man
