

How did we turn into enemies?
I'm questioning yo' credibility
Was it all a lie?
All the vows we made
'Cause I loved you but I'm not sure what changed
Better off playing with some other bitch
Niggas be so counterfeit
All of that begging and crying you did
Just to put me through this shit
You could've left me alone
Left me alone
You could've left me alone

It's been 40 days since you've heard from me
It's been 40 nights since I've been asleep
40 things going through my mind
I've heard 40 lies 40 different times
40 days since I've touched the phone
40 nights since I've cried alone
I've got 40 things going through my mind
Ain't no hope in love, tried it 40 times

Real bitches can't be bought
So tired of being strong
Someone come keep me soft
I gave you too much credit
Too much credit
And yo' shit so inauthentic
Oh, oh
But I hope you see the light someday
I was always in your corner
I know all yo' niggas warned ya
I did everything correct
From the love down to the sex
Look at the effort you giving me
Look at the effort you getting

It's been 40 days since you've heard from me
Since you've heard from me
It's been 40 nights since I've been asleep
Oh
40 things going through my mind
40 things, babe
I've heard 40 lies 40 different times
Oh
40 days since I've touched the phone
Touched the phone
40 nights since I've cried alone
Cried alone
I've got 40 things going through my mind
On my mind
Ain't no hope in love, tried it 40 times

But it ain't forever
But it ain't forever
Can't name one bitch that'll do you better
