

Ain't Gotta Leave

Tink

Hitmaka

You ain't gotta leave in the mornin'
You ain't gotta leave in the mornin'
In the mornin'

This whole thing got me fucked up
I been down, I been lucked up
Since we've linked, I swear, it's been a little minute
I was trippin' but with you I think I get it (Oh)
I was so out of it
You stuck around for it
Been missin' out on you (Yeah)
We had to hang it up
And now you really stuck
I think it's time for us

I ain't gonna leave in the mornin'
You ain't gotta leave in the mornin'
In the mornin'
So when it's time to wake up
We can do some more simple things
Know you like how I touch you, baby
I ain't gonna leave in the mornin' (In the mornin')

Oh yeah, no talkin', boy, you know what I want
Only time that you come is when you wanna get stuff
You be on yo' nonsense, shit we on so toxic
I'll be on yo' conscience, I'll be on yo' conscience
We gotta run it back
I need that double time
Better not play with me
You gotta cancel plans
So, go ahead, light it up
'Cause I'ma take my time
No, we not in a rush

You ain't gotta leave in the mornin'
You ain't gotta leave in the mornin'
In the mornin'
So, when it's time to wake up
We can do some more simple things
Know you like how I touch you, baby
I ain't gonna leave in the mornin' (In the mornin')
