I've been tryna be patient for you
I can't lie when we overdue

But it's hard to keep sex from you

It's 3am and I just left the club
Who else gon' be the one to turn you up?
That shit you doing is so dangerous
It hit different, you know why
It's how we argue, then you say it's all for me
The only time I'm ever singing off key
Is in that bedroom when we messing up the sheets
You know I'm trying to bless you
