

Charged Up

Tink

I can't even trust you 'cause your story always changing
Want to see what you gonna lie about today
Like I'm talking to a child, boy you test my patience
Swear you on my nerves and I'm done fucking with you

Charged up
You must be losing it
Acting like I'm stupid
I ain't stuck on you
I'm charged up
You should find somebody else
You know I'm not the one
Not the one for you

I can't bite my tongue no more can't hide it (No)
If you gone fuck around I won't keep trying
You gone have to be on my timing
'Cause it's always a nigga on my line
Met the other side of me when you kept playing in my face
Pushing me to the point I'm not tryna catch a case
I done really took it there now you ain't got nothing to say
You see that your truth ain't believable to me

I can't even trust you 'cause your story always changing
Want to see what you gonna lie about today
Like I'm talking to a child, boy you test my patience
Swear you on my nerves and I'm done fucking with you

Charged up
You must be losing it
Acting like I'm stupid
I ain't stuck on you
I'm charged up
You should find somebody else
You know I'm not the one
Not the one for you

Charged up (Ooo)
Oh you got me charged up (Yeah)
Charged up (Ooo ohh)

I've been way too patient
Messed around and got fucked up off you
Think it's you that need saving
But right now got a nigga coming through
Yeah I got options
He on the way so I can't pick up if you calling
Matter fact we hitting LA won't be back tomorrow
Yeah he gonna spend a bag
He want to treat me right to get my mind off you
How you think that you finna call right back
When you been doing me wrong
You keep acting out
So I'ma switch it up
'Cause you got me charged up

I can't even trust you 'cause your story always changing

Want to see what you gonna lie about today (Today)
Swear you on my nerves and I'm done fucking with you
