

Heat of the Moment

Tink

(Hitmaka)
(HolUp)

Same bitch, it's just a different level
Brought a dress, I'm dancin' with the devil
On my shoulders, got more weight than ever
Heat of the moment, I won't feel no pressure
Late nights, my thoughts be runnin' wild
Fake a smile, but I'll be shittin' down
So-called friends, I'm like, "Where are you now?"
When I need you, nowhere to be found

Will they still hate me when it's all over?
Lately, them nights been gettin' colder
Talkin' like, "Damn, she ain't the same now"
When really you the one that changed, how?
Different faces that these hoes want me to try on
All these rumors, I'm not one for them to lie on
But it's too late to walk away, and they gon' find out
Yeah, they gon' find out soon

And if they knew me behind closed doors
Then they would understand my flaws

I'm just the same bitch, it's just a different level
Brought a dress, I'm dancin' with the devil
On my shoulders, got more weight than ever
Heat of the moment, I won't feel no pressure
Late nights, my thoughts be runnin' wild (Wild)
Fake a smile, but I'll be shittin' down (Down)
So-called friends, I'm like, "Where are you now?" (No)
When I need you, nowhere to be found

Why the love don't feel the same now? (Same now)
Feel like they only clap when you on the way down
Ain't nothin' you can say now
You in the way now
They gon' smile in your face, say they love you
Whole time, want your place, wish they was you
Try and build a case just to judge you
Be the same bum bitches screamin', "Fuck you, too"

(Ooh-ah)
And if they knew me behind closed doors
Then they would understand my flaws

Just the same bitch, it's just a different level
Brought a dress, I'm dancin' with the devil (Oh no)
On my shoulders, got more weight than ever (Oh woah)
Heat of the moment, I won't feel no pressure
Late nights, my thoughts be runnin' wild (Wild)
Fake a smile, but I'll be shittin' down (Down)
So-called friends, I'm like, "Where are you now?" (Where?)
When I need you, nowhere to be found (Oh)

Woah-oh
Oh-oh-oh

No, oh-oh
Oh-oh-oh
Ooh-woah
