

Insane

Tink

Might be my pride
Might be my ego
I can't help it that I won't let you in deep
You're showing signs you're falling in love
But this ain't exactly what it seems, boy

Truth is I got my ways, I don't want to hurt you like that
A little stuck and I might just double back
Strings attached to the nigga from my past
So this probably won't last

He got me insane
I'm in love with a nigga that won't change
Can't promise that I'm all in
'Cause if he come calling
I'm already on my way
He got me insane
I'm in love with a nigga that won't change
I don't want to hurt you
So I'll be the first to say
Baby, loving me brings pain

Now the truth is that I can't really stop you from trying
If I told you that I love you, then I'd probably be lying
I know you're catching feelings, no commitment, no surprises
Hate to let you down, but I can't stay for long

Truth is I got my ways, I don't want to hurt you like that
A little stuck and I might just double back
Strings attached to the nigga from my past
So this probably won't last

He got me insane
I'm in love with a nigga that won't change
Can't promise that I'm all in
'Cause if he come calling
I'm already on my way
He got me insane
I'm in love with a nigga that won't change
I don't want to hurt you
So I'll be the first to say
Baby, loving me brings pain
