

Nothing Else Matters 2

Tink

Oh, oh, oh, oh, oh, oh

Place me on your counter
See what gets me louder
And to undress
Boy I got some hips now
Something to hold on to while we're in bed
And it's all for you
Even though I can have anything I choose
If you let me put it in your face
I'll work you like you're employed
Something you will enjoy, yeah
He off the D'usse
I been rolling too so I don't feel none of the pain
He hit this pussy so good
That I might wake up and tat on his name
Oh, yeah
We be fuckin' till the sun comes up

When I'm with you nothin' else matters
When I'm with you nothin' else matters

No nigga fuckin' with the one that I got
A place you can hide when the city is hot
I know it ain't safe when you in that field
So keep me in mind when you get in motion
Never missin' like your name Frank Ocean
You know just how I feel
I can't get through to you when you're off them pills
So come home to me every night and I'll please you
Boy would you like a laced two piece you can see through?
'Cause I'm horny

When I'm with you nothin' else matters
When I'm with you nothin' else matters

All I see is rain and thunderstorms in the news weather report
Boy I wouldn't ask you for nothin' that you couldn't ask me for Money so thick it won't fit in my jeans
He say it's wet as the navy, marines
Spinnin' up on him like he was a globe
Cookin' him breakfast but no panties on
No panties on

When I'm with you nothin' else matters
When I'm with you nothin' else matters

I love the way you smell
So I drive a thousand miles
Just to make love to you
Just to make love
Just to make love
I love the way you smell
I drive a thousand miles
Nothing else matters

Hey Tink I have another question

How do you, how do you know what matters most to you?
Do you have to balance it?
Business? Music? Love? Sex?

There is a no balance
Everything in my life is, is just a gamble
It's all about just upgradin' it, progression
