

Stuck

Tink

Damned if I do, damned if I don't

Stuck in my feelings for days at a time
My first mistake was acceptin' your lies
You were my favorite, so I let you slide
Now I can't get no peace of mind, no
Just like my exes, you're so full of shit
And I'm way too humble to leave you and quit
So tired of questionin' myself
So tired of keepin' it real
You don't value what I'm worth in your life (Worth in your life
)
It's all fun and games 'til I'm no longer nice (No longer nice)
Played with my heart, now you're blamin' me for your guilt
It's all fun and games 'til I go and find someone else
Go and find someone else
Woah-woah
Yeah-yeah-yeah

I've parted with my soul 'cause this love has expired
A bond with this man is no longer what I desire
Tryna write my life, but it's deeper than my complexion
This love shit is scary like fuckin' with no protection
Ashes in my trays, niggas haunt my mind
It's eatin' at my heart, so I gotta leave it behind
How do I get over somebody that I'm in love with?
Makin' my mistakes 'cause I'm learnin' like it's a subject
I got needs and my body can't wait
I'm all over the place and I'm hopin' that they relate
