

Is this all right to stay inside?
Will these four walls soon enough
Eat me up alive
I can't find the urge to breakout

You look awfully lovely
A picturesque painting
Locked in my head
You know this was an accident
No need to panic when everything slowly descends

We'll slowly descend
Into a darkness I can't describe
We'll slowly descend...

You look awfully lovely
A picturesque painting
Locked in my head
You know this was an accident
Everything slowly descends

Into a darkness that I cannot describe
No more oxygen, no more sunlight

Please don't ever leave me all alone
Please don't leave me

So many mistakes that I can count on one hand
One, two, three, four, five
One, two, three, four, five again

Please don't ever leave me all alone
I'll never let you go
I'll never let you go
I'll never let you go

There's no sunlight
No ever going back
No sunlight
No ever going back
Everything slowly descends

So many mistakes that I can count on one hand
One, two, three, four, five
One, two, three, four, five again
One, two, three, four, five
One, two, three, four, five again

No need to panic when everything slowly descends
