

I see a funnel cloud in the sky
Formulating right in front of my eyes
And I'm thinking to myself, I don't wanna hide
House flips upward in the air
Perpendicular to the attic upstairs
I'm flying high, but it's the most comfortable feeling I've felt in years

I'm getting dizzy but it's alright
I'm getting dizzy but it's alright

Will you take my hand, one more time?
I'm trying to stomach this
My hand, one more time?
I'm trying to stomach this

Tada da da da da, tada da da da da

Trust, these four walls who open up
I see you dance and you take my hand
Spin me till my eyes roll over the back of my head

I'm getting dizzy but it's alright
I'm getting dizzy but it's alright

Will you take my hand, one more time?
I'm trying to stomach this
My hand, one more time?

The damage has been done
I'll never become who you want
Birds will pick apart their favorite specs that's well inside my head
I'll sink into the ground
The flowers will grow inside my mouth
I hope nature takes me with open arms, since you never did at all

I'm getting dizzy but it's alright
I am getting dizzy but it's alright

Tada da da da da, tada da da da da
I'm getting dizzy but its alright
(Tada da da da da, tada da da da da)
I'm getting dizzy but its alright
(Tada da da da da, tada da da da da)
