

Guardians

Tiny Moving Parts

I hit a rough
Streak in my life
No matter how hard I try
It's never enough

So I pull back (pull back)
I peel up (I peel up)
I pull at these scars, 'cause
I keep them opened up

You know I tried my best
You know I tried my best
Why is everything so sad?

Guardians
Dance along the coastlines
Take my hand
Fix me up a new life
Guardians
Guardians
Don't let the scars come
Keep them opened up

Pull up, peel back
Pull up
Repeat again
Pull up, peel back
Pull up
Repeat again

I swear I saw you somewhere
With a rain jacket on, in a storm
I swear I saw you somewhere
You just didn't care

You watched the glaciers collapse
With a giant smile upon your face
You love the waves when they slap
And start marching your way

You know I tried my best

Why!
Why is everything...?
Why!
Why is everything so sad?

Guardians
Dance along the coastlines
Take my hand
Fix me up a new life
Guardians
Guardians
Don't let the scars come
Keep them opened up
Keep them opened up
Keep them opened

No matter how hard I try
It's never enough
