

I'll Be There

Tiny Moving Parts

If it gets too dark in your house
And you can't help feeling scared
Keep your hopes high
You know that I'll be there
(You know that I'll be there)

I cannot focus on a minute
Without you breathing or singing
"I'll try my best to keep you alive"

If the currents too strong to swim through
Or the winters too cold to bare
Keep your eyes wide open
You know that I'll be there

You know that I'll be there
You know!

Picture all the light erased in time
Numbers melting as we speak
Break off such a sickening feeling
(Such a sickening feeling)

I cannot focus on a minute without you
Let's switch it up instead
I'd rather take the hit
You deserve to live, you deserve to

(You deserve to)
(You deserve to live)
(You deserve to)
(You deserve to live)

If the currents too strong to swim through
Or the winters too cold to bare
Keep your eyes wide open
You know that I'll be there

You know that I'll be there
You know!

Nothing lately makes any sense
I try to clear my head
Stay positive
A self inflicted accident
But you can't leave us like this

(I cannot)
I cannot focus on a minute without you
(I cannot)
Let's switch it up
I cannot focus on a minute without you
