

Jotting Notes

Tiny Moving Parts

Why do I have a troubling existence?
Why should I have to struggle at all?

Why do I have a troubling existence?
Why should I have to struggle at all?
My heart's an open book, so you know
I'm forever jotting notes

"Try to be a little better"
Simple sentence
Know it really seems to matter
I promise to achieve
A higher degree
In this body that I'm stuck in
Week after week

The years will someday fly
I hope you're there
To witness my ability to move forward
Collecting more distance
From the human that I once was
To the human I am reaching to be

I'm never giving up
I'm never giving up

Why do I have a troubling existence?
Why should I have to struggle at all?
My heart's an open book, so you know
I'm forever jotting notes

I promise to achieve
A higher degree
In this body that I'm stuck in
I promise to achieve
A higher degree
In this body that I'm stuck in

Why do I have a troubling existence?
Why should I have to struggle at all?
My heart's an open book, so you know
I'm forever jotting notes

Why do I have a troubling existence?
Why do I have a troubling existence?

I'm never giving up
I'm never giving up
