Holograms

Tiny Ruins

In deepest water, there's a line of silver
They say when you look up close, you can feel it alter you
How will we come back again?
Rise and shine

As holograms, you said
It's how we'll dance in the future
Holograms, you said
With big, soft, heavy metal eyes

I saw the grim reaper and I gave him the slip
Saved by the Darth Vader novelty helmet
How will I reach you again?
All I'm seeing stars

As holograms, he said
It's how we'll dance in the future
Holograms, he said
With big, soft, heavy metal eyes

What begins with a whisper
It always ends with a shout
Our lungs are sponges
They're gonna wipe us out
How can I be near you again?
Will we rise and shine?

As holograms?
You said it's how we'll dance in the future
Holograms, you said
With big, soft, heavy metal eyes
