

I'm a Lonesome Little Raindrop

Tiny Tim

I wonder why I'm always lonesome
And what the trouble can be
Some fellows find their mate
Somehow it seems my fate
Has made a monkey out of me

I'm like a raindrop in a cloud
I feel so all alone when I'm out in a crowd, believe me

I'm a lonesome little raindrop
Looking for a place to fall
Pitter pat, pitter pat, pitter pat

The clouds are dark but that don't matter
'Cause into some fair garden
I'll go pitter, patter patter

Girlies oh so fair
They all give me the air
I keep on falling, falling
But can't land anywhere, oh
I'm a lonesome little raindrop
Looking for a place to fall

Hello?
Yes?
Can you answer me a question?

I wonder why I'm always lonesome
And what the trouble can be (well, maybe I can help you out)
I'm always all alone, a sweetie of my own
Would make me happy (gee, I'd like to smile too) as can be

I'm like a raindrop (tch tch) in a cloud
I feel so all alone when I'm out in a crowd
Believe me
I'm a lonesome little raindrop (splash)
Looking for a place to fall
Pitter pat, pitter pat, pitter pat

The clouds are dark but that don't matter
'Cause into some fair garden
I'll go pitter, patter patter

Girlies oh so fair
They all give me the air
I keep on falling, falling
But can't land anywhere, oh
I'm a lonesome little raindrop
Looking for a place to fall

Does anybody want a raindrop?
