Tiny Tim

But in that year also, in '58, I also wrote a great song, I really think one of my best songs at that time, I hate to say the word "great" it's just funny I, I don't mean to, to come out with that, but I just wrote a song for Miss Stephanie Morgan. Stephanie Morgan was her name. She was a Gija type girl. She was a - Mr. Werner Splitstosa was in love with her, uh, however, I wrote this song really because, but she had a Gija type of look. She never fit into my dreams, but I certainly, you never know how songs come, and this is the best one I thought I wrote at that time

I'd ask my lucky star way up in heaven
To send some light and make it shine on me
I must find the way that leads to Stephanie

She gets a lot of letters every morning
She knows a lot of boys from A to Z
What a very lovely lady
Is Stephanie

She loves a boy named Werner
At five minutes to nine
Jimmy, Eddie, Frankie, Bobby
She's changing all the time

I'll ask my lucky star way up in heaven
To ask her if by chance she'd care for me
If the answer's yes I'd run to

Oh, S-T-E-P-H-A-N-I-E, ha ha ha ha!
That was the first time I got the writing bug in me!
