

There'll Always Be An England / Bless 'Em All / It's A Long Way To Tipperary

Tiny Tim

There'll always be an England
While there's a country lane
Wherever there's a cottage small
Beside a field of grain

There'll always be an England
While there's a busy street
Wherever there's a turning wheel
A million marching feet

Red, white and blue
What does it mean to you?
Surely you're proud, shout it aloud
Britons, awake

The empire too, we can depend on you
Freedom remains
These are the chains
Nothing can break

There'll always be an England
And England shall be free
Why, if England means as much to you
As England means to me

Bless 'em all, bless 'em all
The long and the short and the tall
Why, bless every blondie and every brunette
Some we remember and some we forget

But we're giving the eye to them all
The ones that up-heave or appall
We stall and we carry while they want to marry
But nevertheless bless them all

Bless 'em all, bless 'em all
The long and the short and the tall
Why, bless every blondie and every brunette
Some you remember and some you forget

But we're giving the eye to them all
The ones that up-heave or appall
We stall and we carry while they want to marry
But nevertheless bless them all

It's a long way to Tipperary
It's a long way to go
It's a long way to Tipperary
To the sweetest girl I know
Goodbye, Piccadilly
Farewell, Leicester Square
It's a long, long way to Tipperary
But my heart's right there

Up to mighty London came an Irishman one day
All the streets were paved with gold, so everyone was gay
Singing songs of Piccadilly, Strand, and Leicester Square

Till Paddy got excited and he shouted to them there

It's a long way to Tipperary
It's a long way to go
It's a long way to Tipperary
To the sweetest girl I know
Goodbye, Piccadilly
Farewell, Leicester Square
It's a long, long way to Tipperary
But my heart's right there
Yes, my heart's right there

There'll always be an England
And England shall be free
If England means as much to you
As England means to me
