Any postcode, country everywhere
Imma take you to places don't be scared
Because you the baddest girl other girls beware
You be hotter than fire
But you look so cold in designer (ahhh)
You be my desire
Make a bad boy sing like a choir (yeah)

Throw away your man he's dispersible
I'll take you out the ends to the terminal
Put you in the Moncler that's reversible
Summertime we gonna roll in convertible
I see you got Nike on your shoes
Well let me cover you in lv and loub's
Hope you don't mind that I snore when I snooze
Cause' money everyday's what I do
I be giving you the world if you love me
Even leave the road life and the pump
Benihanas if you're hungry
Pent house views out the country
