

Commitment

Tion Wayne

I grind so hard, so I'm distant
And now I'm a little scared of commitment
Nobody knows how you're consistent
When I'm feelin' low, you're my prescription
I know with my name, there'll be complications
A lot of lies and a fabrication
But you should never listen to the rumors
Because we're gonna smile when we got our juniors

You know me, you know what the ambition
Are you gonna ride for the transition?
Road's fucked, man, I can hear the state sissin'
You say jump off the road, but I don't listen
You ain't social, fuck the exposure
When I feel you, I lose my composure
That's why I put you in the Rolls with a chauffeur
And I love you like kale loves soda
Her body's lookin' like Lira Galore
But she ain't sure, she's an entrepreneur
I'ma show these dead things to the door
My R-O-D not to ride up the shore

You need to come roll with me some more
So I can show you what you deserve
I can't lie
I want you bad as ever, why you hidin'?
Just give me your love
I want your time
I want your time, just give me your love

We can shop together baby, his and hers
It's Lowe Street for some Burberry furs
Girls round me, I know it hurts, it hurts
But, baby, don't watch that, 'cause you're the first, the first
I can't lie made you fly off a robberies
I'ma soon make you fly off the properties
No recession, man, eh, that ain't stoppin' me
You can still buy them bags that are quality
First, I will call when I'm rested
Call your front line for domestics
So many friends, you my bestest
Even though the bundle get tested

I know you're tired of the strife, and it's burning you inside
But, are you gonna ride, oh, are you gonna wait for me?

You need to come roll with me some more
So I can show you what you deserve
You need to come roll with me some more
So I can show you what you deserve
I can't lie
I want you bad as ever, why you hidin'?
Just give me your love
I want your time, I want your time, just give me your love
