

Have You Ever

Tion Wayne

Yo

You see me I ain't ever been fake

I keep it G down

Brothers hitting 1, 2 shots and think they're street now

Not me, I keep it real so they rate me

Niggas can't come around me, that's through [?]

So keep your distance

I got here on my own, through persistence

I rob niggas, touch niggas

I ain't got time for fuck niggas

This niggas can't come around me with no figures, like

C'mon

C'mon

Girl got an eye on the style that I got on

I'm like c'mon

I'm grind, grind, grind till I get a mill

Went jail for a sec but, me deya still

Have you ever met a brother like me

That can penetrate your body like me

Broke boy with that pretty wifey

She need to fuck with a nigga like me

(Have you ever...)

Have you ever (have you ever, have you ever)

Let me stroke until these note come alive

But I have to ghost for a minute

Make dough for a minute

'Cause I can't let these fuck niggas take what I grind for my whole damn life

I'm just riding through the city with this beanie in the Addison

Black phone keep on ringing and it's embarrassing

Rap life, trap life

I don't know how I balance it

She wanna know the truth but, I don't know if she can handle it

She love [?] because she knows it's authentic

She talking about [?]

Screenshots, profile pics all in the group

Her loose friends telling her that "He can get it to-"

I'm like "Yes darling"

"You my now so, don't worry 'bout no Ex, darling"

I do road but, for now let's do the Red Carpet

I mean premiers and all of that

Sister keep ringing your phone telling her you'll call her back

You're busy with the don

Champagne spilling when it pops

When we start sipping we don't stop

Bet if feels different when you let a real nigga hit it

Now you're telling all your friends he's a killer when he's in it

Have you ever (have you ever, have you ever)

Let me stroke until these notes come alive

But I have to ghost for a minute

Make dough for a minute

'Cause I can't let these fuck niggas take what I grind for my whole damn life
