

How We Met

Tion Wayne

Funny how we met, yeah, it was meant to be
Yeah, I was all alone and yeah, you came with me
Was going through some shit and you were there for me
I put my trust in you 'cause you

The one that makes it all ok
Even when the skies are grey
You're the one who makes it all ok
Even when my skies are grey

Don't worry, babe, soon, drop down the weapon
Whoever son let Brooklyn to Beckham
Fought them galley, or a ten, they're a seven
I swear on your friend that I'm in Heaven

I got a grind every day of the week
Caught, how we gonna keep on our feet?
You're so sweet, you're my freak of the week
A good girl, but a freak in the sheets

I think about you when I'm outside
Even when I'm chasing my pound signs
I'm old school like
But you know this, looking so cute in your focus
Step in the room, all the man, them get boners
Funny how we met, phone you in the jail, doing hours on my tet
I swear you hold it down, I can never come in next

Funny how we met, yeah, it was meant to be
Yeah, I was all alone and yeah, you came with me
Was going through some shit and you were there for me
I put my trust in you 'cause you

The one that makes it all ok
Even when the skies are grey
You're the one who makes it all ok
Even when the skies are grey

Yo, yo, face like Beyonce, body like Nicki Minaj
When you're feeling low, we can go chill in the shade
You know I done wrong but you don't care 'bout the past
Your bum's too much, you need to slow down in the curves

So we do it with a lick or foreplay
She like my Ursula, be on you all day
When the feds came, helped a nigga take chase
You never watch phase, come every court case

I swear I hold you down 'cause you hold me down
Pent house view, let me show you round
And you ain't wishy wash like them other girls
I swear you'll always be my main chick, fuck another girl

And you're gonna be there in my mansion
Fuck them fuck boys, 'cause you're fucking with a champion
Funny how we met, phone you in the jail
Doing hours on my tet

I swear you hold it down, I can never come in next

Funny how we met, yeah, it was meant to be
Yeah, I was all alone and yeah, you came with me
Was going through some shit and you were there for me
I put my trust in you 'cause you

The one that makes it all ok
Even when the skies are grey
You're the one who makes it all ok
Even when the skies are grey
