

Pay My Money

Tion Wayne

All the god damn calling me a jigalo
Mind your business
I'm just on a mission
Call the gang when I got to let a nigga know
There's some money missing
Take the difference
Yeah yeah, Yeah yeah

Chally chally
When you owe p's you're on silent silent
Know I love to chase that money money
Guys might come in bally bally
Run up on you just for the money (uh hu uh hu)
For the money (uh hu uh hu)
For the money (uh hu uh hu)
For the money (uh hu uh hu)

Yo, Road to riches
They don't want my business
Don't fuck with snitches
Man I got my fitness to chase some niggas
You can run jokes but don't joke with figures
You be on my hit list
Swear it's so steep on my wrist
Same time I'm a gun lean with a fist
Those days all this life style was a wish
Pop down everything's changed with a wrist
Now today I'm legit, coz I'm

Tryna get paid, right away
Better when it comes, both ways
Confidence, day by day
Consequence, If you don't pay
I'll come with my niggas
I'll come with my niggas
I'll come with my niggas
I'll come

Chally chally
When you owe p's you're on silent silent
Know I love to chase that money money
Guys might come in bally bally
Run up on you just for the money (uh hu uh hu)
For the money (uh hu uh hu)
For the money (uh hu uh hu)
For the money (uh hu uh hu)

Come through cause damage
Account told me I got to spend habit
Health is wealth man I fit the whole package
Keep myself healthy I fill up with carats
Make a gyal squirt and I make a man panic
Satnav told me I live up in Harrods
Shoes are Versace my shoes they look Paris
Enter my yard and it's looking like palace
But I still savage, because I'm

Tryna get paid, right away
Better when it comes, both ways
Confidence, day by day
Consequence, If you don't pay
I'll come with my niggas
Be gone for my niggas
You run from my niggas
I'll come

Chally chally
When you owe p's you're on silent silent
Know I love to chase that money money
Guys might come in bally bally
Run up on you just for the money (uh hu uh hu)
For the money (uh hu uh hu)
For the money (uh hu uh hu)
For the money (uh hu uh hu)
