

Diffident Strokes

TISM

Love the one you're with
Love the one you're with
Love the one you're with
And if you can't love the one you're with

Go fk yourself.

Love your endless limitations
Love your vacant situation
Love your nowhere location
Love your outlook pre-renovation
Love your least original sin
Love what's in your wheelie bin
Love your dimensionless perspective
And if you can't love the one you're with

Go fk yourself.

Love your plans that come to nought
Love the baggage that you brought
Love the milk you spilt
Love the windmills at which you tilt
Love your flights of adolescence
Love your cruise to obsolescence
Love the charity you can't afford to give
And if you can't love the one you're with

Love the one you're with
Love the one you're with
Love the one you're with
Go fk yourself.

Go fk yourself.

Go fk yourself.

And if you can't love the one you're with,
Go fk yourself.
Go fk yourself.
Go fk yourself.
And if you can't love the one you're with,
And if you can't love the one you're with,
And if you can't love the one you're with...
