

My Generation

TISM

What do you do when you truly think
The younger generation are generally wrong?
When you think your parents are pretty OK
It's hard to write a good teen rebellion song

My generation; they think that rebellion
Is keeping your bathroom dirty
My parent's house is clean and neat
I never trust a person under thirty
Oh under thirty!

My generation
My generation
My generation
My my my my my generation

Don't you know graffiti is reactionary?
Be revolutionary; join the parenthood crew!

My parents watch TV and go to bed
And you can all snigger behind their backs
But most other people who play rock and roll
What they need is a damn good smack
They need a damn good smack!

My investigation
Leaves no hesitation
In reevaluation
Of estimation of
My generation
My generation
My generation
My generation
My my my my my my my my my my my my my my my my my my my generation
My generation
My my my generation
My generation
Woohoo
My generation
My generation
I said
My generation
My generation
Woohoo
My generation
Why don't you all just give up {the/for?} family
My generation
My generation
My generation...
