

Awakening

Titiyo

When our wishes become ashes
And our dreams stay in our minds
When they say a soul will always find its time

Then a whisper becomes clear
And soothing rain starts falling slow
And she lets her hair down and every field will grow

Ooh, ooh
Awakening, awakening

Well we say we are forever
Feeding dreams of yesterday
And they say go follow shadows as you may

But hidden wings and days desire
Will appear like coloured smoke
And we'll stop talk in circles asking to be saved

Ooh, ooh
Awakening, awakening
Awakening, awakening
