

Memories

TJ Monterde

Can you still remember
The promise that we'll never, ever leave
Never leave
But time just flew so fast
You said I'd be your last
But who is he?
And what are we?

I loved you
But you let go

Now how do I begin
When all that I can think of
Are the memories
Memories of us
How can I be strong
When out of all of these songs
There's a memory
A memory of how we used to be

A hundred years with you
That's what I plan to do
'Cause our love was strong
That's what I knew
But beyond the clear blue skies
Hidden were the lies
That it wasn't me
It wasn't just me

I loved you
How could you

How do I begin
When all that I can think of
Are the memories
Memories of us
How can I be strong
When out of all of these songs
There's a memory
A memory of how

In the blink of an eye
It's a sudden goodbye
Girl, you got me so high
High in love with a lie
Why, love, why?

Now how do I begin
When all that I can think of
Are the memories
Memories of us
How can I be strong
When out of all of these songs
There's a memory
