

Ghost!

Tkay Maidza

Why keep talking that shit to me?
'Cause you never made sense to me
It's like you really wanna get exed from me
And I ain't into that energy
Keep talking that shit to me
We can cut it off instantly
About time having that epiphany
That you never were meant for me (Meant for me)

(Oh)
Only gonna give what ya need to know (Oh)
You ain't gotta say your piece, just go (Oh)
Only gonna give what ya need to know (Oh)
I can disappear real quick, go ghost (Oh)
Only gonna give what ya need to know (Oh)
You ain't gotta say your piece, just go (Oh)
Only gonna give what ya need to know (Oh)
I can disappear real quick, go ghost

Gave you peace of mind, a treasure priceless
Battling your pride, you chose your vices
You should know me better, new horizons
No compromises, keep the silence

Time that I cut my losses (Yeah)
Know what I want, no conscience (Yeah)
Wrap it up with a bow then toss it (Yeah, yeah, yeah)
Off with their head, no nonsense (No)
I'm finna to fill my pocket (Yeah)
Know what I'm worth, off market (Yeah, yeah, yeah)

So why keep talking that shit to me?
'Cause you never made sense to me
It's like you really wanna get exed from me
And I ain't into that energy
Keep talking that shit to me
We can cut it off instantly
About time having that epiphany
That you never were meant for me (Yeah)

Only gonna give what ya need to know (Oh)
You ain't gotta say your piece, just go (Oh)
Only gonna give what ya need to know (Oh)
I can disappear real quick, go ghost (Oh)
Only gonna give what ya need to know (Oh)
You ain't gotta say your piece, just go (Oh)
Only gonna give what ya need to know (Oh)
I can disappear real quick, go ghost

Eyes only mono
Here now Manolo
Never try mess up with the zen, that's the motto
Affiliated only with demand, yeah, I'm shallow
Keep the chit-chat under wraps to an unknown truth
Speak old drama, you got no new news
You don't make no spends, you don't walk, we do
Twenty in the tunnel, never no excuse

I'm real ass bitch, I don't need no muse

I see through you like Casper
Toxic jig's up like the rafters
Me you natural disaster
Pack up ya bags a little bit faster
Bit off more than I can chew
Plates full, throw the deuce
Ain't no room for two
Make moves, play the fool
I could never
Cut no tether
Watch ya mood change up quick like the weather, whatever

Why keep talking that shit to me?
'Cause you never made sense to me
It's like you really wanna get exed from me
And I ain't into that energy
Keep talking that shit to me
We can cut it off instantly
About time having that epiphany
That you never were meant for me (Meant for me)

(Oh)
Only gonna give what ya need to know (Oh)
You ain't gotta say your piece, just go (Oh)
Only gonna give what ya need to know (Oh)
I can disappear real quick, go ghost (Oh)
Only gonna give what ya need to know (Oh)
You ain't gotta say your piece, just go (Oh)
Only gonna give what ya need to know (Oh)
I can disappear real quick, go ghost

Oh, oh-oh
Oh, oh-oh
Oh, oh-oh
Oh, oh-oh
