

Out Of Luck

Tkay Maidza

Are you out of your mind?
Lately I've been sobered up with pride
Explaining isn't needed at this time again
Aren't you tired of thinking what's the hype
'Cause I won't roll the dice

It's better I
Let it die
Your train of thoughts
Is denial
You're going blind
In your disguise
Shoulda known
But never mind

Like who
Would've ever kept you?
If I couldn't get through
Next cue
Uh-uhuh

Early in the morning
You'll be up and calling
I am not that type
So try another time

Early in the morning
You messed up, you're lonely
I am not that type
So try another time (Time)
You outta luck

Won't go the way you like
You couldn't change my mind
Good thing I say goodbye
You played yourself this time

Early in the morning
You're trying to call me
But you know me
Know me

Held on by a thread
You're out of luck
Won't do that again
Too bad for you
Plus de larmes et plus d'regrets
Tu m'as montré juste qui tu es
Don't try to defend
You're out of luck
I said what I said
Too bad for you
And I'm all out of feelings
And I think it's better I

It's better I
Let it die

Your train of thoughts
Is denial
Going blind
In your disguise
Shoulda known
But never mind

Like who
Would've ever kept you?
Next cue
Uh-uhuh (Mmm)

Early in the morning
You'll be up and calling
I am not that type
So try another time

Early in the morning
You messed up, you're lonely
I am not that type
So try another time (Time)
You outta luck

Won't go the way you like
You couldn't change my mind
Good thing I say goodbye
You played yourself this time

Early in the morning
You're trying to call me
But you know me
Know me

Oh-oh
Out of luck

Our flirtation
Your hesitation
Back-and-forth too many steps
I'm done waiting

Lack of commitment
It's too much
Had my heart trippin
Got me so stuck
Getting you out of my head
Was what was missing

So I'm gonna turn me up
I wanna go crazy
Had enough of all of your shady
Shit and stuff I'm done with ya lazy ass
I ain't into that

Early in the morning
You'll be up and calling
I am not that type
So try another time

Early in the morning
You messed, you're lonely
I am not that type

So try another time (Time)
You outta luck

Won't go the way you like
You couldn't change my mind
Good thing I say goodbye
You played yourself this time

Early in the morning
You're trying to call me
But you know me
Know me
