

What Ya Know

Tkay Maidza

I'ma show you this and it ain't what ya know
Tell you what it is, but it ain't what ya know
You sound funny when you talk, you don't know
I make a dollar quick and it ain't what ya know
I'ma show you this and it ain't what ya know
Tell you what it is, but it ain't what ya know
You sound funny when you talk, you don't know
So gimme dollar quick 'cause it ain't what ya know

I been that lock and the key, they can't hop in the seat
See the shock that a man got watching the fees
Made catching the heat, snatching the piece
Still reigning supreme, stay mad as you please
Had to flip it on 'em, new code
One of one nigga on that Madame Tussauds
See a boss in a dress, tag spotted, Hugo
If it ain't about the money then you speaking too low
Never pressed the best blessing
Send these hoes threats and ride my own destiny
Looking the part, I'm fresh in H. Preston
Most they come stressing, that's their own lesson
Stepping on nigga tryna collapse the plan
Told 'em relax the ammo, gonna relapse
You can't tell me sit back
Nigga never seen half a grand
First class to Milan
That's a cheque in my hand

I'ma show you this and it ain't what ya know
Tell you what it is, but it ain't what ya know
You sound funny when you talk, you don't know
I make a dollar quick and it ain't what ya know
I'ma show you this and it ain't what ya know
Tell you what it is, but it ain't what ya know
You sound funny when you talk, you don't know
So gimme dollar quick 'cause it ain't what ya know

Show you what you like, put it right there, right there
Just for the night, but you gotta switch your focus now
Just how I like it
Last time I tried this, oh, oh-oh
I'ma show you this, but it ain't what ya know

Money long, having the best fiscal year
Last time I checked, my bag crystal clear
A boxed-in nigga can't tap in the sphere
Y'all mentally lost, go look in the mirror
I been counted out so many times, offended enough
I'ma paint a pretty picture, how I'm framing it up
All the pressure putting on me made a diamond in rough
Ain't nobody 'bout to tell me, I can get what I want
I'm here for a while, a bitch can't replace me
Shit never easy, I make it look tasty
Hate to see me winning, they plagued, they can't face me
Neck-breaking glances, charmed by all the waiting

I'ma show you this and it ain't what ya know

Tell you what it is, but it ain't what ya know
You sound funny when you talk, you don't know
I make a dollar quick and it ain't what ya know
I'ma show you this and it ain't what ya know
Tell you what it is, but it ain't what ya know
You sound funny when you talk, you don't know
So gimme dollar quick 'cause it ain't what ya know

Show you what you like, put it right there, right there
Just for the night, but you gotta switch your focus now
Just how I like it
Last time I tried this, oh, oh-oh
I'ma show you this, but it ain't what ya know

You know
What you know
You know
What you know, what you know
You know
It ain't what you know, you know
I'ma show you this, but it ain't what ya know
